Elk Creek Trial Grounds: The private owner has generously made his land available to us. We sincerely appreciate your participation in keeping the grounds clean. We ask that all participants park and camp in designated areas. Only the host Club shall be allowed to operate motor vehicles and ATVs within the course limits and on the farm service roads.

Directions to Elk Creek Trial Grounds: From Winnet, MT go about 2 miles south on highway 244. At mile post 22 turn right (west) on King Road (gravel, sometimes called Elk Cr. Rd., no road sign). Follow the signs ~8 miles to the turn off to the King Ranch (sign says “Joe C. King and Sons”). Turn left (south) towards King Ranch. You will be passing through the ranch houses/barns area, drive slowly and follow the signs. The trial camping area is about 1.5 miles east of the houses/barns area, near Elk Creek. There are useful photos of this route posted on the Field Trial Information page on the MTBC web site: <http://montanabc.org>.

Heat: If predicted temperatures are very hot, the Field Trial Committee may elect to start on Saturday and/or Sunday at 6 a.m., break during the heat of the day, and resume braces in the late afternoon/evening. This change will be announced the evening before at dinner.

Motel in Winnett:

1. Northern Motel, Winnett 406-429-7781

Camping: Dry camping is available at the trial site. There is no potable water or electricity on the site. A portable toilet will be available.

Cell Phone Service: Is marginal/poor at the trial site.

Due to a potential fire hazard at this location, open fires/grills are prohibited.

NO OUTDOOR SMOKING IS PERMITTED.
